The lodge is housed in a beautiful Victorian-era building that has been meticulously restored. The interior is warm and inviting, with cozy rooms and a delicious breakfast that is served every morning. The staff at the Searchers is friendly and helpful, and they go out of their way to make sure that guests have a memorable stay.

History of the Searchers Lodge

The Searchers Lodge was built in 1889 by a group of miners who were searching for gold in the nearby mountains. The miners never found any gold, but they did find a beautiful spot to build a home. The lodge was originally called the Miners' Rest, and it quickly became a popular place for miners and other travelers to stay.

In the early 1900s, Park City became a popular ski destination, and the Miners' Rest began to attract skiers and other winter sports enthusiasts. In 1940, the lodge was renamed the Searchers Lodge, after the popular Western film of the same name. The lodge has been welcoming guests ever since, and it has become a Park City institution.

Rooms at the Searchers Lodge

The Searchers Lodge offers a variety of rooms to choose from, including standard rooms, deluxe rooms, and suites. All rooms are equipped with private bathrooms, cable TV, and free Wi-Fi. Some rooms also have fireplaces and balconies.

The standard rooms at the Searchers Lodge are cozy and comfortable, with queen-size beds and private bathrooms. The deluxe rooms are larger and more luxurious, with king-size beds, fireplaces, and balconies. The suites are the most spacious and luxurious rooms at the lodge, with separate living and sleeping areas, fireplaces, and balconies.

Amenities at the Searchers Lodge

The Searchers Lodge offers a variety of amenities to make your stay more enjoyable, including a delicious breakfast, a cozy common area, and a ski storage room.

Breakfast at the Searchers Lodge is a delicious way to start your day. The lodge serves a variety of breakfast items, including hot and cold cereals, pastries, fruit, and yogurt. You can also order cooked-to-order eggs and omelets.

The common area at the Searchers Lodge is a great place to relax and unwind. The common area has a fireplace, a TV, and a library. You can also use the common area to play games or chat with other guests.

The ski storage room at the Searchers Lodge is a convenient place to store your skis and other winter gear. The ski storage room is located on the first floor of the lodge, and it is accessible 24 hours a day.

Location of the Searchers Lodge

The Searchers Lodge is located in a quiet neighborhood, just a short walk from Main Street. Main Street is Park City's main thoroughfare, and it is lined with shops, restaurants, and bars. The Searchers Lodge is also close to the Park City Mountain Resort, the Canyons Resort, and the Deer Valley Resort.
