But one day, Little Red Tractor had a very bad day. He was plowing a field when he hit a rock. The rock was so big that it flipped Little Red Tractor upside down.

Little Red Tractor was scared. He had never been upside down before. He tried to get up, but he couldn't. He was stuck.

Little Red Tractor started to cry. He didn't know what to do. He was all alone in the field, and he couldn't move.

But then, he heard a noise. It was the sound of a truck coming down the road.

Little Red Tractor looked up and saw a big red truck. The truck stopped next to him, and a man got out.

"What's wrong, little tractor?" the man asked.

Little Red Tractor told the man what had happened. The man smiled and said, "Don't worry, I'll help you."

The man helped Little Red Tractor get back on his wheels.

The man got a chain and hooked it to Little Red Tractor. Then he pulled Little Red Tractor back onto his wheels.

Little Red Tractor was so happy to be back on his wheels. He thanked the man and went back to work.

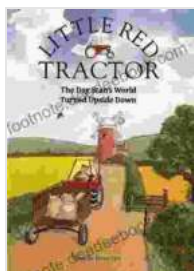

Little Red Tractor never forgot the day he had a very bad day. But he also never forgot the man who helped him. And he always remembered that even when things are tough, there is always someone who is willing to help.
