Outdoor Adventures

Hiking

New Hampshire boasts an extensive network of hiking trails, catering to all levels of experience. From gentle strolls along scenic lakeshores to challenging ascents to mountain summits, there's a trail for every desire. Mount Washington, the highest peak in the Northeast, is a must-hike, offering panoramic views from its summit.

Biking

New Hampshire's rolling hills and scenic roads make it a cyclist's paradise. Whether you prefer mountain biking through rugged trails or leisurely rides along the coast, the state offers a wide range of cycling options. The Mount Washington Auto Road Bike Race is a legendary challenge not to be missed.

Experience the thrill of biking up the iconic Mount Washington Auto Road.

Kayaking

With over 1,000 miles of coastline and numerous lakes, New Hampshire is a kayaker's dream. Explore the calm waters of Lake Winnepesaukee, paddle through the serene Isles of Shoals, or tackle the Atlantic Ocean for an unforgettable adventure.

Skiing and Snowshoeing

New Hampshire transforms into a winter wonderland, offering world-class skiing and snowshoeing opportunities. From the renowned resorts of Mount Sunapee and Waterville Valley to the backcountry trails of the White Mountains, there's snow-filled adventure for every skill level.

Embrace the thrill of skiing in the breathtaking White Mountains.

Cultural Attractions

Beyond its natural beauty, New Hampshire is rich in cultural attractions. From historic landmarks to vibrant arts and entertainment, there's something for every taste and interest.

Historical Landmarks

New Hampshire played a pivotal role in American history. Visit the Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth to step back in time to the colonial era, or explore the Saint-Gaudens National Historical Park in Cornish to learn about the renowned sculptor Augustus Saint-Gaudens.

Arts and Entertainment

New Hampshire is a hub for the arts. Attend a performance at the Palace Theatre in Manchester, admire the works of local artists at the Currier Museum of Art in Manchester, or catch a captivating show at the Capitol Center for the Arts in Concord.
