If you're playing Lady Macbeth, you'll find a range of monologues that capture her ambition, ruthlessness, and madness. For example, her famous "unsex me here" speech is a powerful display of her determination to achieve her goals, no matter the cost. Or, if you're playing Macbeth, you'll find monologues that explore his ambition, guilt, and despair. His "Is this a dagger which I see before me?" speech is a classic example of his inner turmoil.

In addition to the monologues for the main characters, The Lady Macbeth Collection also includes monologues for many of the other characters in the play, such as Banquo, Macduff, and the witches. These monologues provide a glimpse into the minds of these characters and help to create a richer understanding of the play.
